Board of Education Meeting Highlights May 8, 2017

Department Highlights:

Trustees

The Trustees of the Cold Spring School District unanimously appointed Dr. Amy Alzina to be their new Superintendent/Principal. Dr. Alzina is currently completing her eighth year as Principal at Adams Elementary School in the Santa Barbara Unified School District and will begin her new position in Cold Spring School District on July 10, 2017.

Dr. Alzina is a visionary leader who is passionate about serving the children and families of our community. She will continue to build on our current strengths, address our areas of growth, and be able lead through trust and collaboration to continue the excellent education that is provided for our children. Amy Alzina's greatest attributes are her knowledge of curriculum and instruction as well as her interpersonal relationship skills. We view her appointment as a sign of our commitment to lead Cold Spring School District to be the very best we can be.

Parent Square

The Board approved the school-to-home communication program, Parent Square, to be implemented at the beginning of the 2017-18 school year. Parent Square is a comprehensive program that allows our school to communicate with parents and the community via telephone, email, and text in a variety of different situations

Rick Miller

Jeff Chancer, Transition Facilitator had a planned vacation prior to accepting his position in Cold Spring School District. Rick Miller will be filling in for Jeff for a two-week period May 12-26, 2017.
